About

Kosta Meltemy is a vocal project by Pishkey Music, blending Greek and Italian roots into a sound shaped by sea breeze and summer heat.

His voice was created to explore themes of sensuality, fleeting encounters, and memory—within the sun-drenched frame of the Mediterranean.

Sound + Mood

A fusion of Mediterranean folk,
Latin pop, and acoustic worldbeat.

Bouzouki, nylon guitar,
reggaeton percussion,
and layered vocals
create a warm, tactile sound.

Intimate yet danceable
—built for movement,
atmosphere, and emotional depth.

Tracklist

Pame Paralia (Let's Go to the Beach)

Greek summer pop anthem — playful, catchy, sun-drenched. A feel-good vacation hit with nostalgic undertones.

Leandros

Mediterranean folk-pop with lyrical roots in myth. Inspired by Hero and Leander, blending romance and sea-bound fate.

Video

Pame Paralia comes with an AI-generated cinematic video — a surreal summer chase across the Greek seaside, where a mysterious girl, playful dances and sun-soaked village life blur the line between reality and myth under the spell of the chorus.

Creative Direction

All lyrics and vocal concepts are written by Pish'K, a digital-era lyricist focused on AI-assisted songwriting.

Production and artistic development by Pishkey Music, an independent creative house blending songwriting, storytelling, and sound design for real and virtual voices.

PishKey

For licensing, collaborations, or custom songwriting inquiries, Pishkey Music represents a curated catalog of original songs, designed for real voices and crafted with narrative precision.

We develop tailor-made vocal projects — from lyrics to concept — and collaborate with performers, producers, and publishers looking for distinctive material with emotional and stylistic depth.
